the Whakaminenga o Nga Hapu o Nu Tirani

Proclaimed Sovereign Hapu Authority Lawfully Constituted in accordance with the internationally recognised He Whakaputanga o te Rangitiratanga o Nu Tirani 1835, with full acknowledgment of the internationally recognised Te Tiriti o Waitangi 1840, whilst exercising Hapu Kawa Tikanga within the territory of Nu Tirani.

including all prior rights of jus cogens and rights entrenched in Te Tiriti o Waitangi 1840 in order to uphold the native peoples Ngā Hapū Sovereign governance of our country Nu Tirani/Aotearoa.

2. That we affirm Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Tino Rangatira o ngā Hapū o Nu Tirani in its collective capacity as The Sovereign to have been reawakened at Te Hapua on 19 August, 2017 and proclaimed at Waitangi Tai Tokerau on 10 September, 2017 to exercise sovereignty over our whenua (country) Nation State of Aotearoa Nu Tirani.
3. Our country situated 40.9006 degrees south, 174.8860° east of the equator comprises the four (4) Islands of Te Ika a Maui (North Island), Te Waka a Maui Te Waipounamu (South Island), Rakiura or Te Punga o Te Waka a Maui (Stewart Island), Rekohu Wharekauri (Chatham Islands), Hawaiki Tautau (Continental Shelf of Aotearoa Nu Tirani) and all those surrounding seas of Te Moananui a Kiwa, Te Tapokapoka a Tawhaki (Tasman Sea) and ngā motu katoa (all the islands) within our territorial domain.
4. Te Whare Ariki o Runga is the spiritual domain of Te Ture Wairua (Spiritual Law), He Whakaminenga is the earthly domain of Te Ture Tāngata (The Law of Humanity, The Legislature), who holds legal powers to implement Te Ture Wairua and Te Ture Tāngata hei orangatanga (for the health and wellbeing) of ngā Hapū and of their land Nā-Papatuanuku- Aotearoa Nu Tirani
5. Te Whare Ariki o Runga and He Whakaminenga Confederation of Hereditary Chiefs of Aotearoa Nu Tirani will in the future instruct the Māori Government in all transitioning and administration processes.
6. On 4th of February, 2018 we Ngā Hapū of Nu Tirani descendants of the Hereditary Chiefs reaffirm our rights in He Whakaputanga, 1835 (Declaration of Independence and Proclaim the Reinstatement of the Sovereign Order of our Sovereign Country of “Nu Tirani” (otherwise known as “Aotearoa” under the native title of “Nā Papatuanuku o Aotearoa”).
7. On 6th February 2018, We reaffirm and Proclaim our unextinguished title, undisturbed possession of all of our lands, our takutai moana, maunga, ngā awa and taonga tuku iho upon our native lands and seas known as Nā-Papatuanuku-Aotearoa, Nu Tirani guaranteed under the internationally recognised He Whakaputanga 1835 Declaration of Independence and further entrenched in Te Tiriti o Waitangi 1840, (Māori version) notwithstanding prior rights of jus cogens.
8. That the de facto New Zealand Government does not have the mandate to continue as the government over the Sovereign native peoples and therefore we Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Hereditary Chiefs and Ngā Hapu do hereby give Notice that we have resumed the exercise of our sovereign powers and authority to govern over our own
9. In respect to governing and the making of laws, dispensation of justice, the preservation of peace and good order, the regulation of trade and the social, cultural and economic advancement of the Sovereign people Ngā Hapū and the protection of our Land, Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Hereditary Chiefs further invoke our sovereign powers and take the responsibility for these from the de facto New Zealand Government pursuant to Article 2 & 3 He Whakaputanga 1835, Article 2 Te Tiriti o Waitangi (Māori version.)

Proclaimed Sovereign Hapu Authority Lawfully Constituted in accordance with the internationally recognised He Whakaputanga o te Rangatiranga o Nu Tirani 1835, with full acknowledgment of the internationally recognised Te Tiriti o Waitangi 1840, whilst exercising Hapu Kawa Tikanga within the territory of Nu Tirani.

TRANSITION TO SOVEREIGN GOVERNMENT OF AOTEAROA NU TIRANI

10. A Joint Declaration for the stability and the upholding of national unity and territorial integrity and taking into account the history of Aotearoa Nu Tirani and its realities will be prepared between Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Hereditary Chiefs of Nu Tirani, the Governor General of New Zealand, Queen Elizabeth II of England and as well the British High Commissioner that Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Hereditary Chiefs o Ngā Hapū o Nu Tirani (the Sovereign) has resumed the exercise of sovereignty over Aotearoa, Nu Tirani.
11. The transition implementation plan of the policies for the health and wellbeing of our peoples Ngā hapū whānau are to be in place by 28 October, 2018 with full implementation of The Plan by 6th February, 2021.
12. As part of the Joint Declaration and transition to sovereign government and to maintain social stability and economic prosperity a government management commission will be established to guide the new government to effect a smooth transition to sovereign governance and to maintain procurement and supply for public and private sector services.
13. While the implementation plan will require a phased in approach we have identified THREE PRIORITIES for immediate implementation and action. Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga invokes their sovereign power and authority and places a Rahui (prohibition) on the use of the following toxins banned in most countries around the world and known for their indiscriminate lethal harm to human and non-human life. These toxins are;
 - 1080 and any of its derivatives are prohibited from use. As well
 - Fluoride and any of its derivatives are prohibited from use in public water supplies where tāngata whenua are connected to public water supplies.
 - Safe alternative control methods are to be used against harm to humans, native species, plant and fauna and other animals. All animals and plants are sacred and every effort is to be used to ensure their safety and protection.
14. Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Hereditary Chiefs and Ngā Hapu have not given our consent to nor have we been consulted on the CPTPP. The CPTPP impacts on our unextinguished, inalienable native rights, land and taonga therefore we want to know why we The Sovereign have not been consulted. A Rahui (prohibition) is placed on all further negotiations until Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Hereditary Chiefs and Ngā Hapū have been consulted.
15. In summary Ngā Rangatira o Te Whare Ariki o Runga Whakaminenga Hereditary Chiefs o Ngā Hapū o Nu Tirani issue these Standing Orders.
